The image shows a dark-themed user interface for a crypto exchange. A modal window titled "Create API key" is centered on the screen. The modal has a close button (X) in the top right corner. Inside the modal, there is a label "API name" above a text input field with the placeholder text "Enter API name". Below the input field are two large, white, rounded rectangular buttons: "Create API" and "Cancel". The background of the interface is dimmed, showing navigation tabs like "Trade", "Privilege", and "More", and some status icons in the top right corner.
